1. Attached is JMWAVE dispatch [REDACTED], dated 11 September 1963 which transmits subject's "Inquiry Concerning Loss Incurred in Sale of Residence and Possibility for Reimbursement Within Framework of Housing Allowance".

2. The JMWAVE housing allowance program was approved on 1 June 1962 and the supplementary program for payment of a housing allowance to home owners was approved 20 July 1962. [REDACTED] purchased a home [REDACTED] on 6 May 1962 before the rental housing allowance program was announced and, therefore, received the housing allowance payable to home owners. On 30 August 1963 [REDACTED] sold his home as the result of his PCS transfer to Headquarters. Although [REDACTED] recovered from sale price approximately the amount he paid, he had to pay $1,476 commission to the broker.

3. [REDACTED] points out that he would not have purchased the house if he had known a housing rental allowance program was to be implemented.

4. During the period he was at JMWAVE he received a housing allowance of $853.08 which, under the formula established, covered his mortgage instalments and taxes. Had he rented similar quarters, he would have received an allowance of $1,804.08, a difference of $951.00.
